Detailed Action

This is the first Office Action corresponding to original filing. The application contains 13 claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is confusing since it is not clear if the shelf being secured to a piece of furniture is a positive element of the combination, or not. The preamble indicates is not but the test of the claim implies it is. Please clarify. Also, in line 3, it is not clear if the claim recites a rest surface of a shelf (as it is written), or it was meant to recite a rest surface for a shelf. Please clarify. In line 5, there is no proper antecedent for "the upper part". Further, the pronoun it presented in several places of the claim is confusing since it is not clear to what part of the elements recited in the claim refers.

Due to the above, no art has been cited against the claims or record.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Bessinger (4,736,918, 4,736,919 and 4,738,426) and Marsh (2002/0166934) show devices of interest.
